The legal/physical entity identified and indicated in the Work Consignment Entry (herein "applicant"), who wishes to receive an archive certificate and therefore, to include a work by Piero Dorazio (herein "work") in the Archivio Dorazio, is invited to read and accept in whole these Archiving Rules and the following terms and conditions of work evaluation.

The Scientific and Appraisal Committee of the Archivio Dorazio (herein "Technical Committee") has a reunion every three months to examine works submitted for their assessment and in the event of a positive outcome, the works will be registered with the Archivio Dorazio.

The Archivio Dorazio may begin to evaluate the documentation only if it possesses all documents (signed) by the applicant.

Any documentation sent to the Archivio Dorazio cannot be returned.

2. Photographic material.

The applicant shall send a hard copy via post or courier (at your expense) of the following professional images in digital files and printed on photographic paper, with color scale indications:

The applicant must send a copy of the bank receipt based on the type of work under examination, together with other bank/tax information so that an invoice can be issued.

Any special appraisals, calligraphic appraisals, and radiographs will be calculated separately.

Even in the event your work cannot be authenticated, the Archivio Piero Dorazio cannot reimburse, for any reason whatsoever, any analyses costs.

4. Work shipping.

Once the documentation has been sent, the Archivio Dorazio will contact you by phone. A date will be set for the work to be picked up and examined by the Technical Committee.

The shipping (no frame and/or casing) to the address in Milan as indicated by the Archivio Dorazio will be at the expense of the applicant and under his exclusive responsibility. Once the evaluation has ended, the applicant will be responsible for picking up the work at the invitation of the Archivio Dorazio, committing himself to keep it at the disposal of the Committee for as long as it deems fit, even during assessments of a legal nature, if necessary.

In the event the work is not picked up, the Archivio Dorazio will be exonerated—according to conditions established by the law—concerning the safety and storage of the work and it may oblige the applicant to pay a fine of €100 per day for every late day, except for reimbursement of any possible active expenses towards the work's storage.

5. Insurance.

The applicant must stipulate and document a valid insurance policy that guarantees the work against all risk (theft, loss, damage, destruction, or any other harm done to the work itself) during shipping and storage at the Archivio Dorazio.

In addition to the insurance policy, the applicant expressly releases from liability the Archivio Dorazio with respect to any partial and/or total damage to the work, and/or theft during the examination of the Technical Committee and its time at the Archivio Dorazio.

6. Archive Certificate and times for issue.

Except in the event further examination or analysis is required, the outcome of the assessment will be indicated within 3 months from when the Technical Committee meets.

In the event that the outcome is positive the Archivio will send to the applicant, by registered mail or international courier, an Archive Certificate.

In the event of new information or updated scientific knowledge, the Archivio Dorazio has the right to change its decision regarding a work that has been previously examined by the Technical Committee.

7. Archive denial: Limitation of responsibility and renouncing action.

The applicant is obliged to accept the response of the Technical Committee as regards the assessment of the work. It irrevocably renounces any claim and/or act of reparation, according to law, as regards the Archivio Dorazio, and any of its staff, employees, or consultants.

The applicant also guarantees for his assignees and/or licensees of non-archived works, releasing from liability the Archivio Dorazio from third-party claims, to whom he is obliged to communicate any possible negative outcome.

In the case the Archivio Dorazio may be held responsible for actions or events of any kind brought about by its relationship with the applicant, this responsibility can in no way exceed what was paid by the applicant as regards reimbursement for initiating the archiving request process.

8. Updating information on the archived work.

In the event the archived work is licensed to third parties, and within the limits of existing laws concerning privacy, the owner of the work is obliged to inform the Archivio Dorazio, which will update its information on the work.

9. Language, applicable law and exclusive court.
